Guess What Happened Last Sunday?
Josue Ramirez

The view from the pulpit is often interesting. People are so used to watching unresponsive screens that they forget preachers can see them! Yet when Christians gather for worship on the Lord’s Day, something special happens. Hearts unite in gratitude to the Savior, and the family of God grows stronger together.

Worship is a time of praise (Acts 20:7; 1 Corinthians 16:1–2), rejoicing (Psalm 118:24), self-examination (2 Corinthians 13:5), and fellowship (Acts 2:42–47). It is the week’s beginning and its highlight — nothing else compares. Paul once delayed a journey for seven days just to worship with God’s people (Acts 20:6–7).

Every congregation is a tapestry of lives: babies, children, teens, families, singles, and seniors — all gathered to express love for God and thirst for truth. Worship is formal yet warm, structured yet spiritual (John 4:24). And sometimes, the smallest moments reveal the greatest truths.

A baby’s cry reminds us that the church is alive and growing. A church without children is a church without a future. Parents who bring their little ones are training the next generation in the Lord’s ways (Ephesians 6:4; Matthew 19:13–14).

She could have stayed home, but she chose to worship before her shift or after a long shift. Her quiet exit preached a sermon on priorities (Matthew 6:33; Colossians 3:1–2). Heaven noticed.

As the preacher spoke, Bibles opened and pages turned. Like the Bereans (Acts 17:11), believers searched the Scriptures. They came hungry for truth (Matthew 5:6), thirsty for righteousness (1 Peter 2:2). Little hands copied sermon points, planting seeds that will bear fruit for years to come (Isaiah 11:6; 1 Timothy 4:12).

A new believer, baptized just days before, joined in worship for the first time (Acts 22:16; John 4:24). It was the opening note of a lifelong symphony of praise.

Love often shows itself in tears — tears of joy, repentance, and gratitude (John 11:35; Acts 20:37). Heaven rejoices over “one sinner that repented” (James 5:19–20).

That’s what happened Sunday. Insignificant? Hardly. Every moment of worship matters — because every moment draws us closer to the heart of God.
